Dr. Williams's Trust

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

Provision is also made by the Trust for special Ministers in Wales to do missionary and evangelising work in aid of the weaker churches, or in districts where there is no regular ministry.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, and exhibitions for boys and girls in the County Schools, Wrexham. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO POOR MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £20, not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. It has been the practice for many years to restrict these grants to ministers of Baptist or Congregational Churches. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers, but are not restricted to members of Baptist or Congregational Churches. The amount available for these grants is less than for those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of April each year; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following July. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University up to the value of £100 per annum for 3 or 4 years.—Prospectus forwarded on application. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications for Bursaries must be sent in not later than March 1st in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £85 per annum for 2 years tenable at any approved Theological College or University. Application before the 1st of June in each year. Prospectus may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

For all the foregoing, inquiries must be made of the SECRETARY, who will supply further information as required.

THE LIBRARY.—Primarily a Theological Library intended for the use of Ministers, Students, and other persons engaged in the study of Philosophy, Theology, Ecclesiastical History, the History of Religion and kindred subjects, it will also be found useful for the study of History, Sociology, the History of Language and Literature, and Classical Literature both Ancient and Modern.

The Library does NOT supply Fiction, or books on Mathematics, Music, Natural History, Physical Science, or Medicine; nor does it supply Elementary Text Books or Class Books.

Books are lent to persons over twenty-one years of age, duly introduced and guaranteed in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Trustees.

Copies of the Regulations and forms of application for admission may be had on application personally, or by post, to the Librarian.

There is no subscription, but as only a limited sum of money is available each year for the purchase of books, gifts of money or offers of books are gratefully received. A form of bequest appears below.

Readers having books sent to them are required to pay carriage on receipt of the books.

The Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Saturday, when it closes at 1 p.m.

The Library is closed from the Thursday before Good Friday to the following Tuesday, inclusive; during the whole month of August; from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day, inclusive; and on Bank Holidays.

The Reading Room is also closed on the last Thursday in January, March, June and October.

Payments in connexion with the Library should be made by stamps or Postal Orders for small amounts. If cheques are sent they should be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S TRUST.

All parcels and communications relating to the Library should be addressed to—

The LIBRARIAN, Dr. Williams's Library,
14, Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1.

Notes and News.

TRUSTEES.—Since the last issue of the Bulletin the Trust has lost the Rev. C. M. Wright, who died on October 31st, 1946, and the Rev. J. Arthur Pearson, who died on April 23rd, 1947.

Professor Theodore H. Robinson, D.Litt., D.D., has been elected a Trustee and took his seat at the March Quarterly Meeting.

LIBRARY STAFF.—Miss Inez R. Elliott, whom many readers have known as the Senior Assistant in the Lending Department, has been appointed Deputy-Librarian. Miss Nancy D. Croft has been appointed Senior Assistant.

BULLETIN.—With this number the Bulletin of Dr. Williams's Library will bear the date of the year in which it appears, while the list of accessions will refer to additions during the previous year. For the time being Bulletins will appear annually as early in the year as possible. It is hoped later to return to more frequent publication.

A PURITAN AND DISSENTING BIBLIOGRAPHY.—As many readers know, Dr. Williams's Library is unusually rich in books by Dissenters or bearing on their history. The Library has never had the resources adequately to catalogue these books or make them as fully known to students as could be wished. Now by a generous grant from the Pilgrim Trust and another from the Hibbert Trust it has been made possible to appoint Miss Gwendolen Woodward, until recently Librarian at St. Hilda's College, Oxford, to undertake, during the next few years, a full catalogue and bibliography of the older books in the Library, from the early Puritans to the Eighteenth Century Dissenters, bearing on Nonconformist history, and especially that branch of it concerned with the English Presbyterianism. In the initial stages Miss Woodward will be able to draw upon the long experience and detailed knowledge of Mr. S. K. Jones, who served the Library for forty years until his retirement last year.

FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY.—It has been possible to do little more than make known to current readers that with rising costs the financial position of the Library had become precarious and that subscribers as Friends of the Library would be welcome in addition to those (now more than 800) subscribing under the Voluntary Subscription scheme, but already by the date of printing (in June) the number enrolled is 185. This is a very welcome response and has gone a long way towards securing the Library's continuity of service. Needless to say, if a library is to be made a really efficient tool in the hands of students its cost will be considerable, and while we hope that some day 'Friends' may put us on the road to making further progress we are already heavily indebted to them for helping to maintain the status quo.

A first annual meeting will be held in the Autumn at a date of which Friends of the Library will receive notification in due course. The meeting will be followed by a lecture to be given by Mr. S. K. Jones on the Library and its history. It is hoped that other lectures (perhaps two a year) will follow, dealing alternately with philosophy, theology, etc., and with some aspect of the Library's rich store of resources for the student of history.
